INTEREST THE HOME CIRCL THIS PAGE IS PLANN

ART DEPARTMENT. LANSBURGH & BRO.

SPECIAL SALE

of Stamped Linen (slightly soiled) at

1 lot of Linen Doylies,

5c each Were Se, 10c, and 12c.

1 lot of Center Pieces from 10 to 50c each

Worth Double. 20x54-in. Linen

Bureau Scarfs, 15c each

Were 25c

40-in. Linen Table Covers. 25c each

Were 40c and 50c.

Hemstitched and Drawn Work Tray Cloths. Worth 40 and 50c.,

25c each

Linen Hem. stitched Bureau Scarfs,

50c each

Worth 75c and 85c,

SPECIAL OFFER: A Stamped Linen Center Piece, in the newest designs, given away with each dozen Embroidery

S. KANN, SONS & CO., 8th & Market Space.

FINE Persian and Novelty Silk Ribbons.

4 and 5 inches wide, a vard, the very latest

29c.

S. Kann, Sons & Co 8th and Market Space.

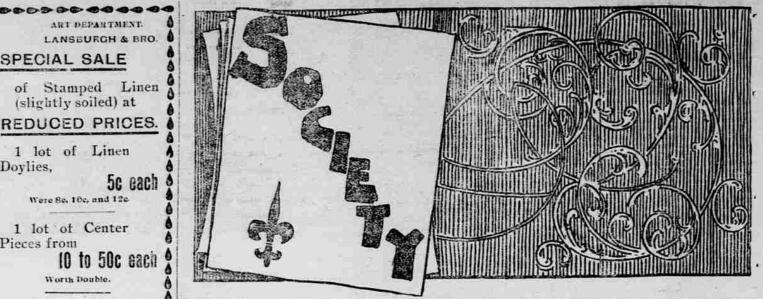

Mrs. M. A. Harper of 33 D street southeast, Washington, says: "I took Brown's Iron Bitters for loss of appetite, weakness and general debility, and was so much benefited that I can beartily recom-

Fresh Laid Eggs.

You cannot improve on a nice fresh egg—the trouble is te get fresh ones. We look after that. Our Fancy Eggs are put up in one dozen patent pocket boxes, and every egg is guaranteed fresh. The price is no higher than others sek for inferior qualities.

WILKINS & COMPANY. Equare Marble and Glass Stands, Center Market

Stoll's shoes

MANY DINNERS AND RECEPTIONS GALORE

Attorney General and Mrs. Harmon Dined a Party and Senator and Mrs. Sherman Received.

The Attorney General and Mrs. Harmon gave a dinner of fourteen covers last evening. Those bidden to sit about the flower decked table were the Postmaster General and Mrs. Wilson, the Brazilian Minister and Mme. de Mendonca, the Mexican Minister and Mme. Romero, the Guatemalan Minis ister and Mme. Lazo de Arriaga, Mr. and

Mrs. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Bowler. Senator and Mrs. Sherman gave a handsome reception last evening at their home on K street. American Beauty roses in a silver centerpiece ornamented the table in the dining-room, where a collation was

Mrs. Sherman wore a gown of silver gray satin, trimmed with rose brocade, her jewels a diamond crescent pendant. Assisting Mrs. Sherman were Mrs. Ira McCallum, her daughter, wearing pink satin, combined with green mirror velvet and lace, diamond necklace; Miss Helen Sherman, pink satin; Mrs. Probasco of Cincinnati, white silk crepe, with lace; Miss Eleanor Fitch of Pittsburg, pink satin, combined with green.

These ladies, with the exception of Mrs. McCallum, are guests at the home of Mrs. Sherman. Music made an addition to the worth 75c and $1.00 charm of the largely attended affair. Among those present were the British Minister, the French Ambassador and fad. Clearing sale price,

Minister, the French Admarkator had been price, and Madame Patenotre, the Mexican Minister and Madame Romero, the Chinese Minister and Madame Yang Yu. the Brazilian Minister and Madame Arriaga, the malan Minister and Madame Arriaga, the malan Minister and Madame Arriaga, the members of the cabinet and their wives; Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, Chief Jus-Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller, Chief Jus-tice and Mrs. Gray, Senator and Mrs. Cameron, General and Mrs. Miles, Miss Miles, Senator and Mrs. McMilian, Miss Mics, Senator and Mrs. Boardman, Senator and Mrs. Brice, Mr. Sandford Beaty, Miss Leiter, Mr. and Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Hugher, Captain Heese, Mr. Eastman, Mr. Williney, Mr. J. A. Taylor, General and Mrs. Parke and others.

Mrs. J. Frank Aldrich of 1401 Stoughton skeet northwest entertained at a tea from 4 to 7 yesterday in honor of her guest, Miss Esther Bogue of Chicago.

The house was decorated throughout with palms, roses, ferns and wild smilax, the stairway being especially effective with orchids and ferns.

Mrs. Aldrich, gowned in a becoming bod-ice of pink brocade with gold spangled revers and lace, and black satin skirt, was revers and face, and black satin skirt, was assisted by Miss Bogue, in a dainty gown of mull over silk and finished with rose pink ribbons about the throat and waist; Miss Stevenson, in a pompadour silk bod-ice of white and pink with black satin sleeves and black satin skirt, and thrown careiessly about her shoulders was a pink boa; Miss Scott, in black velvet; Miss Reed, daugater of the Speaker of the House, in embroidered white satin and lace, served the cherry glace. the cherry glace.

Miss Campbell of Baltimore, in green and white striped bodice and black slik skirt, and Miss Foutelle, who looked especially attractive in a gown of white striped crepon trimmed with lace, were of the receiving party. Miss Martha Aldrich, who is not yet out, assisted, as did Representative Ald-rich, who greeted his many friends with a pleasant smile and a hearty handshake. The center design of the tea table was a nauve shaded lamp encircled with pink carnations and ferns, on either side of which were the silver candle sticks capped with pink shades, the color scheme being carried out in the confections.

Among the many who called were: The

Last Evening Was an Important
One In Society.

Among the many was called well. Lazo
Guatemalan Minister and Madame Lazo de Arriaga, Mr., and Mrs. Sayers, Mrs.
Turner, Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. Flynn, Miss Bryan, de Arriaga, Mr, and Mrs. Sayers, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Hooker, Mrs. Flynn, Miss Bryan, Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, Mr. and Mrs. Back, Miss Morton, Miss Odell, Miss Black, Representative and Mrs. Dockery, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Miss Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Northway, Mr. and Mrs. Binger Hermann, Mrs. R. Townsend Knott, Dr. and Mrs. Milburn, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Cart Morten, the Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. and Mrs. Loring, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley, Representative and Mrs. Joy, Mrs. Mark Morton, the Chinese Minister and Madame Yang, Miss Byant, Miss White, Commissioner and Mrs. Yoeman, Mr. and Mrs. Hagner, Mrs. Joseph B. Doe, Major and Mrs. Gilmore, Mr. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Fouler, Gen. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Grove L. Johnson, Miss Johnsen, Miss Page, Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. Bilee, Mr. and Mrs. Fry, Justice Harlan, Mrs. Seldon, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Norton, Mrs. and Mrs. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellman, Senator Jones, Miss Jones and Miss Vance.

Senator and Mrs. Brice gave a most de-lightful musicale yesterday afternoon. About two hundred and fifty guests assembled in the drawing rooms, made frag-rant by hundreds of American beautyroses, to enjoy the exquisite soprano voice of Mme. Clementine de Verc-Sapio, who

A delightful literary and musical program has been arranged. The story of the evening is by Mrs. Dora T. Voorhis, an original sketch by Miss Corinne Hay and an original poem by Miss Margaret Huddle are among the attractive features.

Miss Virginia King Frye of Capitol Hill, lately won a prize of $100 over several thousand competitors, in a recent literary and artistic contest offered by "Comfort," a magazine of Portland, Me.

A pieasant surprise party was tendered Miss Emma Miller at her home, No. 1011 First street northwest. The evening was pleasantly passed by a number of friends, who played games and enjoyed music and refreshments, which were served later. Among those present were: Misses Mary Josephine Miller, Catherine Miller, Mr. Quinn, Miss Katie Eorger, L. Van. L. King, J. and A. Sullivan, Annie Schneider. Mr. Robert Quinn, Floyd Maley, Stephen Franck, Thomas Fealey, Joseph King, Edgar Henguely, Thomas Brookes, Henry Miller, Lawrence Mills and Willie Wade.

gave her second "at home" yesterday after-noon in the pariors of the Arlington. Throngs of mallers greeted the charming hostess. of callers greeted the charming hostess, who was becomingly gowned in black bro-cade and layender satin, trimmed about the bodice with point applique lace. Her jewels were diamonds.

jeweis were diamonds.

Assisting was Miss Emily Norwood Tre-main. of "Willowbrook." near Albany, N.
Y., a niece of Mrs. Peckham, who is a daughter of Judge Lyman Tremain. of New York. Miss Tremain wore a pretty gown of grey taffeta silk with bodice of white Others who assisted were: Mrs.

gave among other selections, the "Jewel gave among other selections, the "Jewest Song" from Faust, and the clever recita-tions of Miss Amy Baker, of New York. Mrs. Brice received her guests wearing a superb gown of green velvet, the Misses Brice wearing velvet gowns of blue and of silver gray. Guests included a number of the ladies of the Cabinet, the members of the diplomatic corps, with their wives and other persons of social prominence.

Mrs. Harmon gives a luncheon today. Mrs. Dieudonne gave a tea yesterday from 4 to 7, assisted by Mrs. Clifford last evening.

Mrs. George W. Smith and Mrs. Saunders daughter of Representative Loud of Cali forms, will receive informally at No. 918

Fourteenth street, Tuesdays, January 21

Miss Woodward, who has been visiting

Mrs. Andrew B. Graham will be at home Wednesdays in January, No. 1407 Sixteenth street.

A musicale will be given by Miss Bessle Stewart Tyler, Monday evening, January

Mrs. Samuel Jackson, wife of Medical Director Jackson, U. S. N., and her daugh-ters, Mrs. Andrews and Miss Jackson of No. 1312 Connecticat avenue, will give a tea Wednesday, 4 to 7.

Mrs. Herman of Oregon, will receive to-day and February 4, No. 1301 N street. Mrs. Claude A. Swanson will not be at

Mrs. W. H. Sims, No. 1119 K street

Mrs. Van Yoorhis, Mrs. Dolliver, Miss Southard, and Mrs. Towne will not receive today, but will be at home Tuesday next at the Hamilton.

Mrs. William J. Warren, the Cairo, will not be at home tomorrow, but will receive Wednesday, January 29.

Mrs. Charles E. Foster will entertain at huncheon Mrs. and Miss Warner of New York, who are expected as guests, at her house, January 31.

The Short Story Club will hold its next regular meeting at the "Wimodaughsis," 1328 I streetnorthwest, Wednesday evening.

Miss Tuckerman, Mrs. Batcheiler, wife of Seneral Batcheller; Mrs. Frascr, jr.; Mis-Rochester, Miss Batcheller, and Miss Lce. Miss Alice Lee, of Boston, pourer the tea and chocolate. The tea table was made attractive, with pink and white bracesmaid roses and pink and white confections Among the many who called during the afternoon were Lady Pauncefote, the Gautemalan Minister and Madame Laz Arringa. Lady Goff, Lord Westmeath, Madame Grandprey, Secretary and Missa Morion, Mrs. Anthony Pollock, General and Mrs. ordon, Senator and Mrs. Lodge, Miss Vilas, Commander and Mrs. Davis, General Dana, Senator Linusey, Miss Riggs, Miss Pendie-ton. General Rochester, Miss Cochren, Com-mander and Mrs. Train, and many more.

The Washington Mintary Cyclists held heir first grand reception last evening at

The hall was handsomely draped with

Sergeant Arthur Bennett, Sergeant F. Carroll Mattingly, Private Theodore Michael Private Harry Gaither, Private R. H. At-kinson. The floor committee included Lieut. P.P. Libbey, chairman; Lieut. W. E. Sorreis, First Sergeant H. R. Gisson, Private George E. Frech, Private J. E. M. Washburn, Private Wm. C. Eckstein, each wearing a MacHuriburt, Miss Carrie MacHuriburt, Miss Kate Eshomo, Miss Lutz, Mr. Brooke Clokey, Miss Schaefer, Mr. Eisel, Miss Rose Scfton, Miss Hagan, Mr. Thomas, Miss Sullivan, Mr. Bechert, Mr. Slack, Miss Johnson, Miss Cullen, Mr. F. P. Libbey, Miss Braski, Miss Keefer, Signor Mariono Mainn, Mr. W. C. Grigsby, Capt. Harry Douglas King, Mr. Baxter, Mr. Charles Butterfield, Miss Clara Stevens, Miss Shallott, Miss Bessie Graham, Mr. Charles Hasch, Mr. George W. Strong, Mr. James MacHuriburt, Miss Carrie MacHuriburt, Miss Hasch, Mr. George W. Strong, Mr. James Pepper, Mr. Andrews, Miss McNutty, Mr. Young, Mr. Dickmann, Mr. Moran, Miss Boain, Messrs, Berton, Smith, McNanara, Moran, Larkin, and Tolson.

The reception tendered the Legion of Loyal Women by its "good of the order committee" at the hall, No. 419 Tenth street, last evening was a delightful occusion. Following is the program:

Duct, Mrs. Neille C. Royce and Mrs. Ada
H. Weiss.

Poom entitled arts, program and all the street of the str

Buct, Mrs. Neilie C. Royce and Mrs. Ada
H. Welss.

Poem entitled "The Blue and the Gray," dedicated to Mrs. M. H. Tanner, composed by Mrs. Pickett, read by Antoinette Tanner, who also gave deverly a selection by James Whitcomb Riley.

Mrs. Hort recited, Mrs. W. Wright gave a paper, "What constitutes home;" Mrs.
Crandall, a poem, "Woman's True Sphere," and the Legion cheft sing sweetly for the pleasure of those present.

The legion announced a reception to be given its honorary members at the residence of Mrs. Baltus DeLogg, No. 914 M street northwest, on Wednesday evening,
January 29, and accepted an invitation ex-

Bottom on Coat Prices.

If your Coat buying is still left undone you need wait no longer. The following are the closing-out prices of the season—the last we shall quote:

Absolute

EYRRY COAT that was $15, $16.50, $17. $18.50, $17. $18. $170, $27.50, $10.00,

Last Prices of the Season.

Bon Marche. 314-316 7th St. N. W.

tended by Wimodaughsis to attend a recep-tion to be given to Mrs. Anna Shaw and Mrs. Howland, on Wednesday next, and Mrs. Howland, on Wednesday next, January 22.

The committee in charge was Mrs. H. N.
Rose, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Eilen S.
Mussey, Mrs. Heien R. Holmes, Mrs. Rose Ferree, Mrs. L. A. Crandall, Mrs. E. A.
Hort, Mrs. E. F. Hort, Mrs. M. E. Cutter, Mrs. L. C. Perham, Mrs. J. G. Houston, Mrs. E. A. Cleaves, Mrs. F. A. Cameron, Mrs. M. A. Houghton, Miss Nettle Tanner, Mrs. M. C. McCullough, Mrs. M. H.
Weisner, Mrs. Eleanor Wright, Mrs. Jessie Osborne and Miss Margie Cox. Osborne and Miss Maggie Cox.

Miss Nott entertained a party of young riends at the ice palace last evening, in-luding Mr. John Lodge, Miss Hay and Mr.

Miss Rose Miller, who has been the guest of her friend, Miss De Wein of Augusta, Ia., has returned to her home in this city. Miss Hamlin will give a luncheon Saturlay, January 25. Mrs. Alexander H. Smith will give a tea Thursday, 4 to 6, No. 1713 P street.

Miss Helm of Kentucky, is the guest of Mrs. Joseph C. Hutcheson and Miss futcheson, the Arlington, will not be at ome today.

Mrs. Rengifo will b eat home today. Mrs. A. C. Geer, No. 1223 N street, will eccive today.

Mrs. Stephen Northway and daughter, Mrs. Northway Williams, will receive today from 3 to 5 at the Bancroft.

The Martha Washington Chapter, D. A. R., held a delightful reception at the residence of the regent, Miss Lilian Pike, Easy to Find Out.

"What are you thinking of, Madge?"

"Waether I would rather have you for a friend or Jack for a husband."

"Well, can't you have both:"

"That depends upon Jack."—Harlem Life.

Dinner Gown of Velvet

SOLID GOLD TOILET SET.

Monogram in Diamonds, and It Is the Khedive's Property. New York World.

It is said that the only complete gold toilet set in the world belongs to the Khedive of Egypt. Its exact value is not known, but it must be enormous, for the set is incrusted with diamonds and other precious stones. Egypt, by the way, has a debt of about $225,000,000, and, besides the interest on this, has to pay an annual tribute to the Sultan of Turkey amounting to nearly $3,500,000. Despite this, the present khedive has been following Jin the footsteps of his predecessors, whose extravagances brought about the present almost bankrupt condition of the country.

Each piece of the khedive's golden toilet set bears his monogram in diamonds. Upward of 3,000 diamonds and over 1,200 rubies were used in decorating these gorances with the Exercisian valories. geous adjuncts to the Egyptian ruler's dressing table. The body of each of the twenty-eight pieces is of 18-carat gold, and all are inclosed in a diamond-incrusted ebony case.

Women Are to Blame.

Women cannot ask men to marry them -at east, they do not exercise that prerogative. even in leap year. Although the magic bis sextile is now upon us, we do not think it will embolden young women to pop the question themselves. They will continue to be asked to wed in the good old way. There-fore, as women have not the courage to ask men to wed them, the decline in matrimony may by the thoughtless be ascribed wholly to the men. But this is only a superficial view. It is the opinion of philosophers that it is the woman who marries the man. He does not always know it. She plays her cards so defly that he generally imagines he has caused her to fall in lover with him; that he then has become interested in her, has slightly returned her affection, and in a lordly way proffered her his hand. This in a lordly way profered her his hand. This is an error. In nine cases out of ten the woman makes up her mind that she is going to marry a certain man, and in five cases out of nine, she succeeds. If, therefore, marriage continues to decline in this State, it is the fault of the young women. Either they make the men too fearful of matrimony or they themselves are not fascinating enough. In either case, the blame must fail upon their shoulders.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Fashions as Seen In the Boxes

SMART WOMEN AT THE OPERA ILLUSTRATE PASHIONS.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor, With Other Young Matrons, Are Setting the Example.

New York, Jan. 18. - A visit to the opera in these days of gorgeous stuffs and showy trimmings reveals so much splender that anything like a plant gown in one of the smart boxes is apt to attract attention from the mere force of contrast.

Such attention Mrs. John Jacob Astor brought about a few nights ago, when in a dainty costume of pale green velvet, without a shred of trimming, she sat in her box at the Metropolitan Opera House.

The model of this charming gown was a youthful round bodice and a plain, full skirt, that hung in godets at the side. The neck was cut square and not too decol-lete, and the small puff sleeves were small. At the bottoms of these the material was drawn tightly around the arm to the outsi as if tied; long, white suede gloves, wrink-ling considerably at the upper portion, meeting them. With this enchanting simplicity, a white spray aigrette, fastened with a round dia-mond brooch, in the hair, was on this occasion Mrs. Astor's only ornament, if on may except the superb bouquet of white carnations and roses. On another, however, with the same gown, a long brooch of diamonds and pearls, shaped into a true lovers' knot, was added with stuming effect to the front of CORRECT OPERA TOILETS. These pale velvet gowns, all in one tone, it is observed, are now much affected for opera wear by the prettiest women in the swell set. For, of course, one must have more than a moderate share of good looks to stand the severity of simple lines, a single tone and no trimming. If trimming is used it is in the form only of fine laces, and is confined to the bodice, hanging from a round or square neck in soft berthas, or else shaped in splendid revers and collars.

Pretty Effect in a Cape

WHEN WEARING JEWELS. If untrimmed, all the jeweled pins and brooches in possession are sometimes called into account, and are fastened close together in a glittering line across the bust. Pearl necklaces are also much seen in three close rows with diamond barrettes, and igain in a long single string that is wound twice around the throat, the lower loop, in ome cases, falling almost to the waist. Another neckiace recently seen at the opera was very charming, and on investiga-tion proved to be quite within the reach of This was a single string of tiny seed pearls, that fitted close to the throat, and from which hung at intervals of an inch a variety of unset stones. The stones were bored and strung through with a gold bored and strong pendant; a great shapeless pearl forming the center drop. The other gems were colored and of a dozen kindsbut others similar to it can be found at the big Japanese importing houses on Broad way. In their cheapest shapes they cost course, correspondingly more to be desired

$50, though those more expensive are, of opera, and, indeed, for other evening occaions now, is the white caprey aigrette with the lewel fastening mentioned, but a nore gracious effect even is to have the fastening a pair of soft crush roses, in a gay or delicate tone.

Neat for Afternoon Tea.

silk, and in the adjustment of the orna-ments these will be placed low at the left side of the coiffure, almost behind the ear. If the wearer is a grand brunette, with inky locks, the effect produced is delightfully Spanish. For blonde heads there are very pretty butterfly and bird wings in gold and silver net, and young ladies are much given to simple bandeaux of white, or pink or blue satin ribbon with an nigrette in the same tone, or else a perky bow at the

DEBUTANTE FROCKS.

Opera gowns for young ladies also run to simplicity, and the most charming ones seen consisted of a plain satin skirt and a fulle podice, made in a round, baby fashion. The color always is cream white, or a pale tint, blue, pink or yellow, and small artificial ively.

Again a tulle bodice for a young lady. whether in white or color, may have only a belt and neck garnishings of white satin ribbon, and, though simple, the look of this

Velvet and satin gowns for those who are fond of much trimining have sometimes tulle and artificial flowers on the skirt as well as bodice.

A dinner gown trimmed in this way, illustrated, appeared at the opera a few nights

Fresh Wonders Every Day.

Today we offer you a tidbit in the shape of Silk

75c Dresden and Persian Ribbons, 23c. About 1,000 yards, all silk, 5 inches wide, all shades, per yard...... 230

In Cloaks and Capes we have always the best assortment in town, and our prices are the envy of storekeepers $20, $15 and $12 Capes, $7.98. Astrakhan, full sweep, silk lined, $7.98 the latest Parisian models......

$18, $15 and $12 Jackets, $7.25.

Rough effects, in excellent quality Boucle and Kerneys—all slik lines, large sleeves, rippie backs....... $7.25

King's Palace, 812-814 Seventh Street N. W. 715 Market Space.

ago, and is of black velvet, with a scare decoration of scarlet tuile, shaded with black figures. This drapes the neck of the bodice and crosses the bust diagonally to the waist, a great scarlet chrysanthemum catching it in front and at each shoulder. The same flowers hold down the sash pieces on the skirt and show at the outside of the short puff sleeves

REVIVAL OF OLD STYLES AND TINTS. In the costume with the infant robe front season, and that is no other than the oldtime Mazarine blue, worn a quarter of a century ago. The front and sleeves of this gown are of velvet in this color, the other material being silver brocade, showing big eccentric figures in the Mazarine. The lace on the bodice is old Venetian point, the belt a narrow band of dull silver set with sapphires. 1

A high-necked gown of black and white striped allk is especially suited to polite mourning and is dressy enough for any occasion. The skirt and sieeves of this are of the silk, the bodice cut low at the top, and with sleeve epaulettes, is of white velvet embroidered with jet. The neck is covered by a white tulle gamp over white silk, and is finished at he throat with a wide jet band. Over this a full ruffle of white talle fails be comingly.

EVENING BODICES. Odd bodices are more than ever seen just now, and some of those sported at opera and theater are very beautiful. They are worn with silk, satin, and velvet skirts, and the skirts need not necessarily be always black. For example, a magnificent skirt of dark red velvet, recently worn in a theater box, has a little round body of pale pink chiffon with trimmings of lace and white satin ribbon. A skirt in a rich black peau de worn with a darling waist. This was also the baby shape so much affected nowadays. and that seems to carry with it always the suggestion of youth, and was of white satin with short puff sleeves and a simple trimming of velvet in a brilliant electric green. A twist at the bottoms of the sleeves, a narrow belt and one mad bow. like a strange bird, at the left of the round neck, was all the velvet used. High waists of chiffon have sometimes the bodice portion covered with scattered lace designs or rows of insertion appliqued on. One enchanting one, worn lately to the theater, was appliqued all over, with hig love knots. The wearer was a blonde nothing could have been more becoming to her type than this adorable bodice.

Washingtonians in New York

(Special to The Times.) New York, Jan. 20 .- S. E. Benedict, Park Avenue; D. S. Barry, W. A. Muckles, Astor, J. F. Reilly, F. Kresow, Continental; E. A. Bennet, W. Jones, Gilsey; G. L. Brailley, J. McMillen, Holland, H. Calver, Albermarie; C. B. Clark and wife, Metropole; J. H. Corning, St. James, J. W. Douglas, Sturtecoraing, St. James, J. W. Pougnas, Starte-vant, L. L. Driggs, Coleman; E. W. Egbert, Colonade; E. B. Haya, St. Denis; J. M. Hickey, St. Denis; A. C. Leurs, Morton; J. P. Miller, Astor; W. L. Cronan, J. Med-derourn, T. P. Morgan, F., Imperial; S. M. Ellis, Barthelodi; A. Ordway, Hoffman; A. E. Stevenson, Savoy, Mrs. Frederick May was a mong the passengers who safiel on steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II, for Genoa, E. H. Kanitz left the Plaza Hotel here and

sailed on the steamship Aller, for Bremen,

Marriage Licenses. Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to the following: William H. Berlin, Richmond, county, Va., and May E. Clements. Henry Ward and Mary Tolliver. Edward D. Davis and Mary Dyson, both of Fivattsville, Md.

of Hyattsville, Md.

Joseph Morris and Rosie Green.

George W. Littlehales and Helen P. Hill.

Says It Well. Mrs. Gossipy—I think young Mr. Chatter is a delightful conversationalist. Mr. Gossipy—Well, yes; he succeeds pretty well for a man who never has anything to UNDERTAKERS.

MILLER-Rosina, January 20, 1896, aged sixty-nine years.
Funeral from her late residence, 410 K street northwest, Wednesday, January 22, at 2 o cack. Friends and relatives invited lease omit flowers.

Please omit flowers.

DIGNEY—On Saturday, January 18, 1896. at 9:15 p. in., Mantie E., the beloved wife of Hugh D. Digney, and daughter of Hannah and late John Dailton.

Funeral from her late residence, No. 41 Myrtiestreet mortheast, on Tuesday, January 21, at 8:80 a. m.; thence to 8t. Aloysius Church, where mass will be said at 9 a. in.

May 20 Lt. cm.
BOYD—Entered into rest on the 18th inst. Mrs. Notice Boyd, beloved daughter of Mrs. Sallie M. and the late Edward W. Moore, after a lingering lilness of consumption. (Richmond and Manchester papers please copy.)

age.

Her funeral will take place from her late residence, 1324 Fifth st. nw., on Wednesday, January 22, 1896, at 8:30 a. m., and thencetothe lumaculateConception Church, where high requirem mass will be said for the repuse of her soul.

May she rest in peace.

Ja 20-21-cm

C. Arthur Snyder and Laura E. Scrivener.

J. WILLIAM LEE UNDERTAKER 332 Pn. Ave. N. W. First-class service. Phone, 1385. 134-6m

a. m. Baltimore, Chicago, and St. Louis papers

Enltimore, Chicago, and St. Louis papers please copy.

SMITH—On Monday, January 20, at 7:30 o'clock a, m., at her late residence, Hyattsville, Md., Anna R., wife of Francis H. Smith, in the sixly-third year of her age.
Functal from the Presbyterian Church, Hyattsville, Wednesday, at 11 a. m. Intermentat Oak Hill.

DUNN—On Monday, January 20, 1896, at 5 a. m., Marcella, the beloved wife of James M. Dunn, in the fortieth year of her age.

Emrich's Market Quotations for today. Rib Roast, per 1b...... 10c

 Lard, 4 lbs. for 25c

 Sugar Corned Beef, per lb
 3 and 4c

 1 Can of Corn and Tomatoes
 15c

 Asparagus, per can...... 20c Select Poultry, Oysters, Fish, Vegetables and Fruit.

EMRICH BEEF CO.

2026 14th St. n.w. 13th & N. Y. av. n. w 5th & I Sts n. w. 4th & I Sts. n.w.

8th & M Sts n.w. 21st & K Sts. n.w. 20th & Pa. ave. n.w.

Howard, the Misses Peacock, Garner, and Dr. and Mrs. Guzman gave a reception

Mrs. Charles Lyman, No. 1243 New Jersey avenue, will not be at home today nor Tues day next, but will receive Tuesdays in Feb-ruary.

Washington as the guest of Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Lamont, leaves today for New York.

The German Ambassador and Baroness von Thielman will entertain at dinner Friday, February 7.

Mrs. Swann, No. 1415 I street, has issued cards for a tea, January 23, from 4 to 7.

George T. Frazer, Mrs. Arnould Hague,

The hait was handsomely draped with ligs and prettily adorned by a number of artisucany piaced paims and other tropical plants. In the balcony an orchestra was stationed which formished excellent mosic for the dancers.

The reception committee, each member wearing a white rithout badge on the sapel of his coat, welcomed the guests. These were: Captain 8, H. Wiggin, chairman; servegant Arthur Bennett, Sergeant F. Car-badge of bine ribbon.

Athong the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Christian, Miss De Moll, Mr. William
Baum, Mr. F. J. Schlick, Miss Bright, Miss